King is the happiest dog I know.

When it was a puppy, it was so fat, soft and cuddly.

Its fur was dark brown and black with its ears hanging down.

As it grew older, its fur became lighter in colour.

Whenever it sees me, it stands on its hind legs waving its front paws, eagerly awaiting a hug.

It barks at strangers and gets really mad whenever they get near it.

King also enjoys going on afternoon walks.

King is more than just a pet.

Its FAMILY!
