Our Government

Notre État

In towns, regions, and countries, there are people who help us to live peacefully. That group of people is called the government. Who leads the government in our town?

Dans les villes, les régions et les pays, il y a des gens qui nous aident à vivre en paix. Ces personnes s'appellent les représentants de l'État. Qui dirige notre ville ?

A government provides services to help people.

Can you name services that our town provides?

Les services de l'État aident les personnes.

Pouvez-vous citer des services que rend notre ville ?

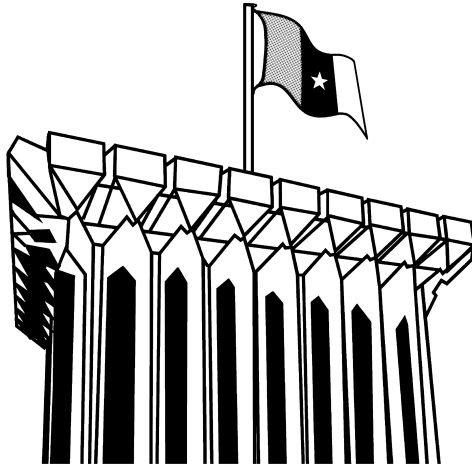

The leader of a region is called an Administrator. Who is the Administrator of the North West Region?

The leader of Cameroon is a President, and the group of people who help him is called the Parliament.

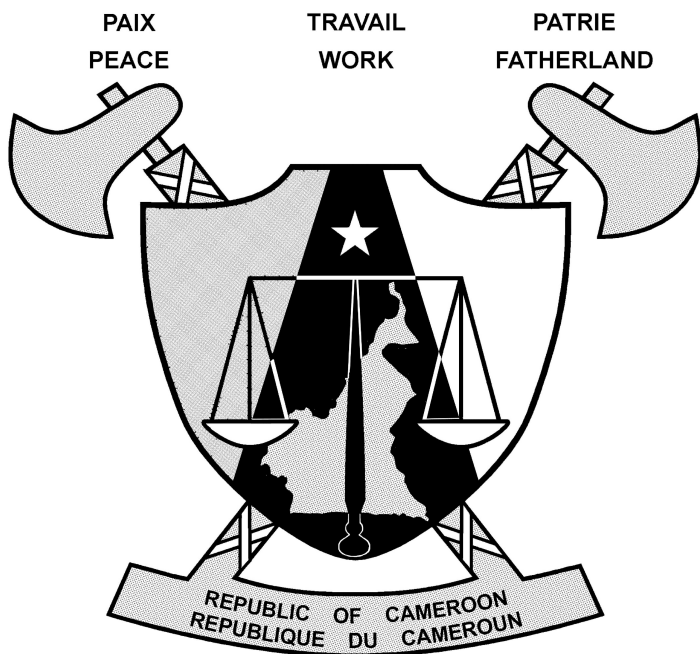

Le chef d'une région s'appelle un préfet. Qui est le préfet de la région du Nord-Ouest ?

Le chef du Cameroun est un Président, et le groupe de personnes qui l'aident s'appelle le Parlement.

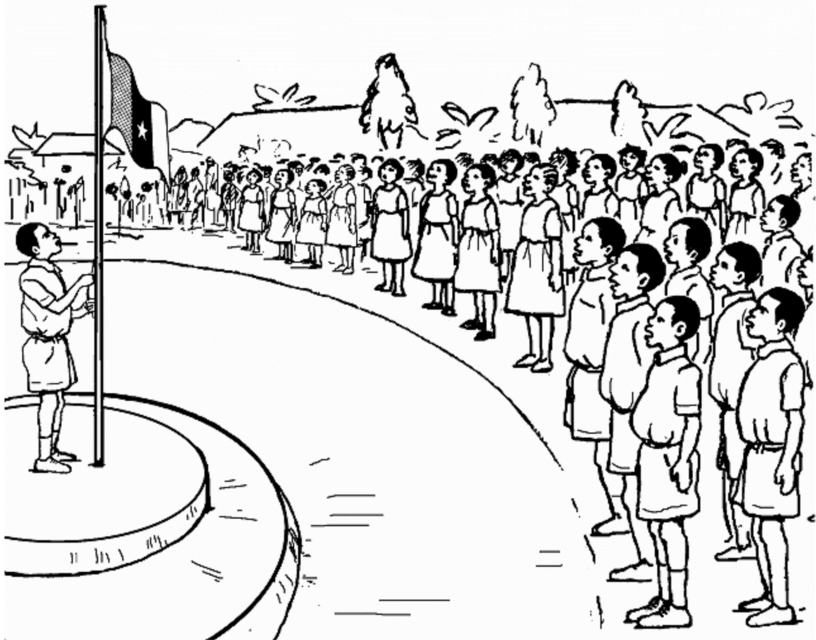

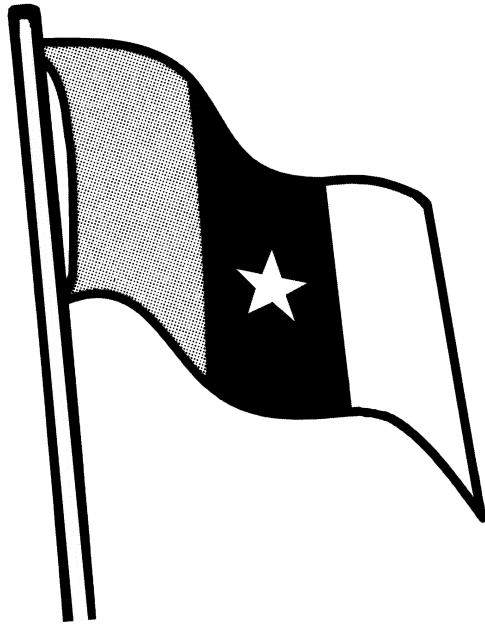

The Parliament has leaders, too. One is the Prime Minister and another is the Speaker of the National Assembly. Can you name the President of Cameroon? Can you name the Prime Minister?

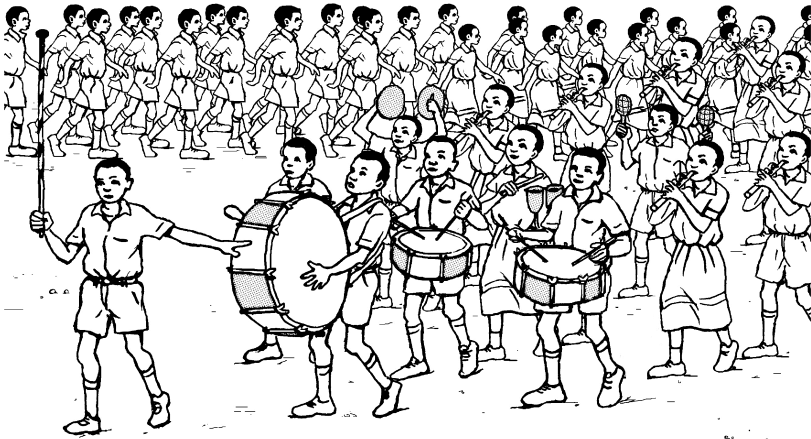

Le Parlement a lui aussi des chefs. L'un est le premier ministre et l'autre est le président de l'Assemblée nationale. Quel est le nom du Président du Cameroun ? Quel est le nom du premier ministre ?

The country of Cameroon has special symbols to identify it as a nation. These are: a seal, a flag, and a National Anthem.

Le Cameroun a des emblèmes qui l'identifient comme nation. Ce sont : un sceau, un drapeau et un hymne national.

We also celebrate special holidays and feast days in Cameroon. Which holidays are important to you?

We are proud to be Cameroonian!

Nous avons également des jours fériés où l'on fait la fête au Cameroun. Quels sont les jours fériés qui selon vous sont importants ?

Nous sommes fiers d'être Camerounais !
